And the Bystanders Laughed.

Upper Sandusky Union: This is a story we heard Monday, and it is too good to keep. "One of our commissioners," so says the reporter, "was recently sitting in front of the hotel Gottfried. In the bosom of his shirt sparkled a large diamond, at least large enough to attract attention and throw forth the inference there was little possibility of accusing it of being manufactured at Findlay."

"A citizen approaching and being attracted by the shiner, gazed at it a moment with mingled awe and admiration. Finally he inquired:

"Say, what's that you got on your shirt front?"

"'Eh,' replied the county commissioner. 'This? Why, can't you see—that's a burr off of a Canton bridge.'"

And the bystanders laughed."

Dentist J. B. Dewese has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Philadelphia.

Two million Americans suffer the torturing pangs of dyspepsia. No need to Burdock Blood Bitters cures. At any drug store.

The Rail Spread.

The shifter used in the Pennsylvania lines yards in this city was thrown off the track in the vicinity of the Wrought Iron Bridge works Thursday morning. It is stated by the railroad officials that a rail spread as the shifter was running along the track and this threw it off. The engineer and fireman were badly shaken up but they did not sustain any injuries. The wreck train was summoned here from Alliance Thursday afternoon and it will replace the engine on the track.
